Commission on Disability Concerns to Meet

The Michigan Commission on Disability Concerns (MCDC) will meet Friday, October 19, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., at the Midway Hotel and Conference Center, 7711 West Saginaw Highway, in Lansing.

In addition to regular agenda items, the meeting will include the presentation of a recently completed Youth Leadership Forum 2001 video and discussion of an informational packet entitled Accessible Cities and Towns.

The commission is comprised of 21 governor-appointed members who serve in an advisory capacity. MCDC serves as an advocate and information resource for Michigan's 1.7 million persons with disabilities. It is administratively attached to the Family Independence Agency with its staff located in Lansing.

The meeting site is accessible. People with disabilities requiring additional services or alternative formats in order to participate should call Gerry Muty at (517) 334-8000.
